Entry Discussing Plaintiffs' July 22, 2014, Submissions

The Court has reviewed the plaintiff's filings received on July 22, 2014.

These filings include:

- Pre-Supplemental Amended Verified Complaint (103 pages)
- Motion Seeking Assistance with Service of Process
- Yuri Zavodnik's Affidavit
- Gersh Zavodnik's Affidavit
- Tatiana Zavodnik's Affidavit
- Certificate of Efforts to Give Notice
- Civil Cover Sheet
- Notice of Tort Claim
- List of Plaintiffs and Defendants
- Proposed Summons

- Motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis

These filings shall be filed and docketed in the normal course.

Also submitted yesterday were approximately 1000 pages of exhibits associated with the Pre-Supplemental Amended Verified Complaint. There is no reason to submit evidence at this point in the proceeding. These exhibits to the complaint can be “stricken without bothering to read.” Kadamovas v. Stevens, 706 F.3d 843, 844 (7th Cir. 2013). It is for this reason that the clerk is directed to return these exhibits to the plaintiffs unfiled. The plaintiffs may retrieve the exhibits from the clerk’s office during normal business hours.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
